7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Tim Ingram, Staff Director, Subcommittee on Government Information & Individual Rights, House Government Operations Committee, and advised him of the indices problem relating to the Agency's foreign mail intercept program and said we will provide a fact sheet as soon as we have the full story.

Ingram said that a question was asked at the hearing on 28 April 1976 on whether or not the files in the intercept program had been combined with other files in the Agency, and the response was that they were separate. Ingram said he heard a rumor that a document may be coming out on the Senate side that may be contrary to our response and that the information had been provided by the Agency. In response to my query, Ingram was not sure whether the question related to files or the dissemination of information from the program. I told Ingram I was not aware of this and asked him if he knew any more but he did not. I said I would check and let him know.

Later, Ingram called to report his conversation with Mr. Kipperman, who is representing his wife in the suit, and in response to my query, said that he had not relayed any of the facts I had given him to Mr. Kipperman. I promised to send Ingram a copy of the motion, after checking with the Department of Justice, and again told him we would try to provide him the full story on this as soon as we had all the facts pulled together.
